DULF (University Diploma in French Language),

Intensive French courses for foreign students

The next pre-registration for entry in January 2018 will take place:

Monday, November 6\textsuperscript{th} of 2017 (from 10am on internet only) → http://www.univ-paris3.fr/dulf

To request a record of pre-registration, you must fill out the form will be available to you (with your name, nationality, date of birth, telephone number, email and postal address).

Registration will be online only from 10am. No documents will be requested on this day.

Please note, the number of cases is limited, we will consider the chronological order of requests. We'll send you an email telling you how to withdraw.

After removing the file, you will then have four weeks to complete with a photocopy of a birth certificate\textsuperscript{} and a photocopy of the last graduation in your country\textsuperscript{}:

- Diploma of higher education (university or other) OR
- The diploma of secondary education \textsuperscript{*} (with the entrance exam to higher education for some countries)

\textsuperscript{*} All documents must be translated into French by a sworn translator.

Having completed and returned the case to the secretariat, we will send you a certificate of pre-registration and an appointment – in January 2018 - for tests of level and orientation for all language levels (except for Beginnings students). Students must take a written and oral test to determine competence levels.

With the certificate of pre-registration you can apply for a student visa if you are abroad (read below for more information) or extend it if you are already in France.

At every language level, the 4 skills (listening comprehension - reading comprehension - speaking - writing) are worked as well as grammar, phonetics and civilization. At the end of the semester a diploma indicating competency level is awarded to students providing they have satisfied all course requirements. Attendance is mandatory.

Classes begin on January 15\textsuperscript{th}.

The DULF is a paying university degree for one semester (January-May 2018) at 20 hours per week. It is possible to re-enroll for next semester (September-December 2018).

\textbf{Costs 2016/2017 (for information)}:

Course Fee (per semester): 795 €
+ University Fees: 189,10 €
+ Social Security: 215 €

Payment is made after the posting of test results orientation (in January 2018).
VISA APPLICATION

International students (non EU) who live abroad in one of the following countries (Algeria, Argentina, Benin, Brazil, Burkina Faso, Cameroon, Chile, China, Colombia, Congo Brazzaville, South Korea, Ivory Coast, United States, Gabon, Guinea, India, Japan, Lebanon, Madagascar, Mali, Morocco, Mauritius, Mexico, Peru, Russia, Senegal, Syria, Taiwan, Tunisia, Turkey, Vietnam) must absolutely build a case with the CEF (Center for Studies in France) of their country.

Applications are to be created on the interface: http://www.campusfrance.org/

If the file is accepted for pre-registration, the academic secretariat of the department (DULF/Sorbonne Nouvelle Paris 3) send the applicant a certificate of pre-registration to be submitted to Campus France.

After interview, an adviser to the Department of Cooperation and Cultural Action of the Embassy of France, issued an opinion on the application.

After that, the consular department of the Embassy of France examines the case and decides whether to award student visa.